The Heinrich Böll Foundation stands for values to ecology and sustainability, democracy and human rights, gender democracy, self-determination, and justice. Our namesake, the author and Nobel Prize winner Heinrich Böll, stands for a stance we embrace: defense of freedom, civil courage, combative tolerance and the appreciation of art and culture as independent spheres of thought and action.

We are looking for scholarship holders who are committed to these values, who are socially engaged and who are committed to the goals of the Heinrich Böll Foundation as future multipliers. We therefore ask you to pay particular attention to these aspects and, in any case, to answer all of the following questions and provide as much detail as possible: What distinguishes the applicant in terms of their commitment, and why do you think the applicant is a good fit for the Heinrich Böll Foundation?

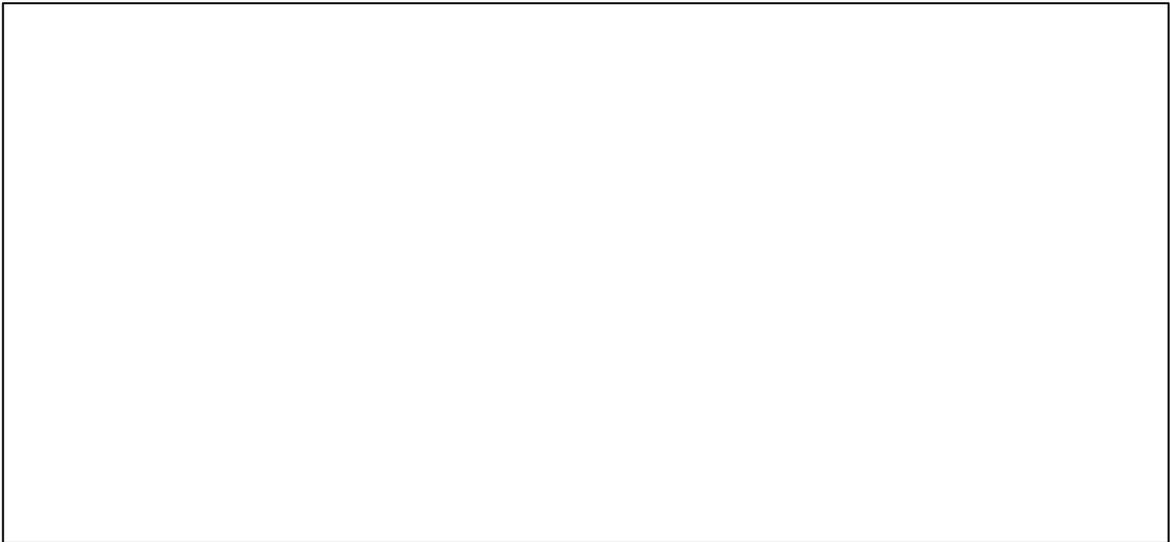

If the provided fields are not sufficient, please add your further comments at the end.

4. Please explain the applicant's personal situation if they have had limited opportunities to get involved so far e.g. for political reasons depending on their country of origin in the case of international applicants, or due to other commitments such as childcare, caregiving or working. 5. Why do you think the applicant is a particularly good fit for the Heinrich Böll Foundation?

6. Recommendation with reasons, further comments if necessary:

Please send this reference to the applicant before the application deadline (March 1 or September 1); the applicant should then add this to their application.
